

TASS, Nov. 12, 1946

Moscow--Children's homes in Orlov Region are receiving considerable quantities of sugar, jam, chocolate, tinned food, fabrics and clothes sent as gifts by American and Iranian Red Cross Societies, TASS reporter was told at an executive committee of the USSR Red Cross Society. These homes accomodate war orphans in particular children whose peasant parents were guerrilla fighters during the Patriotic War."